Lack of monitoring of Centrally Sponsored Schemes

†995. SHRI PYARELAL KHANDELWAL: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that due to lack of concrete monitoring/co-ordination, the benefits of Centrally Sponsored Schemes specially Indira Awaas Yojana are not reaching to deserving people;

(b) whether it is a fact that same thing is happening with other schemes related to rural development;

(c) if so, the efforts being made by Government to tide over the situation;

(d) whether Government are considering to engage any independent agency to make assessment in this regard; and

(e) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI SURYAKANTA PATIL): (a) to (e) The Ministry of Rural Development is implementing a number of schemes and these schemes are being implemented by the State Government/District Rural Development Agencies (DRDAs)/Zilla Parishads (ZPs). With a view that the benefit of all the rural development schemes including Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY) reach the deserving people, the Ministry of Rural Development has put in place a comprehensive multi-level and multi-tool system of monitoring the implementation and evaluation of impact of the programmes including utilization of funds through Periodical Progress Reports, Performance of Review Committee meetings, Area Officer's Scheme, Vigilance and Monitoring Committee at the State/District Level with greater involvement of Members of Parliament, National Level Monitors to monitor quality of work, adherence to implementation of schemes as per programme
